SOFTWARE PROJEKTS

C$50 Finance (01/2023 - 02/2023)
- In this project, I used Python's framework Flask, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap and for db sqlite3,
- I implemented this project by using Harvard's CS50 X course,
- Working Principle: After successful registration, a symbolic 10.000$ is assigned to the user. Users can quote, buy and sell stocks by interacting with IEX (https://www.iexexchange.io/) API's. Additionally, users have the chance to see their portfolio, past transactions and are able to change their password.

Google [Search - Image Search - Advance Search] (01/2023 - 02/2023)
- In this project, I used pure HTML & CSS,
- I implemented this project by using Harvard's CS50 Web course,
- This is my fist project that I completed by re-implementing Google's Homepage, Advanced Search and Image Search.
